

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

DIEGO PILCO,

Petitioner,

-against-

UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE EXECUTIVE OFFICER FOR IMMIGRATION REVIEW,

Respondent.

23-CV-10051 (LTS)

ORDER TO AMEND

LAURA TAYLOR SWAIN, Chief United States District Judge:

Petitioner, who is appearing pro se, brings this “immigration appeal” against Respondent United States Department of Justice Executive Office for Immigration Review (“EOIR”). He asks this Court for assistance with his appeal.

By order dated November 21, 2023, the Court granted Petitioner’s request to proceed in forma pauperis (“IFP”), that is, without prepayment of fees. For the reasons set forth below, the Court grants Petitioner leave to file an amended petition within 60 days of the date of this order.

BACKGROUND

Petitioner brings this action seeking assistance with an appeal: “I ask you to please help me with the appeal, by again reviewing the evidence that we have provided about us and our children that we have been able to find.” (ECF 1, at 5.) Petitioner contends that because he has “presented everything up to date . . . the answer given is no[t] correct[.]” (Id.) He notes that “[e]verything I ask for is for our children for the best future they have here.” (Id.) Petitioner does not allege any additional facts.

DISCUSSION

Petitioner brings this action seeking assistance with an appeal, but he does not provide enough facts suggesting that he is entitled to any relief from any EOIR decision. The petition pleads facts indicating that the EOIR rendered an unfavorable decision regarding Petitioner's immigration application, possibly regarding his children, and asks for assistance in appealing that decision. Because the petition does not provide any additional information, and the Court is unable to discern whether Petitioner is entitled to any relief, the Court grants Petitioner 60 days' leave to file an amended petition.

In the amended petition, Petitioner must provide a short and plain statement of the relevant facts regarding his claim against the EOIR. Petitioner should include all of the information in the amended petition that Petitioner wants the Court to consider in deciding whether the amended petition states a claim for relief. That information should include:

- a) a description of the type of immigration application Petitioner filed, including the name and number of the application;
- b) any and all decisions rendered regarding his application, and the agency that rendered such decisions;
- c) a description of any appeals Petitioner has filed; and
- d) the relief Petitioner seeks from the EOIR.

CONCLUSION

Petitioner is granted leave to file an amended petition that complies with the standards set forth above. Petitioner must submit the amended petition to this Court's Pro Se Intake Unit within 60 days of the date of this order, caption the document as an "Amended Petition," and label the document with docket number 23-CV-10051 (LTS). A complaint form is attached to this order, which Petitioner may use to assert his claims. No summons will issue at this time. If Petitioner fails to comply within the time allowed, and he cannot show good cause to excuse such failure, the petition will be dismissed for failure to state a claim upon which relief may be granted.

The Court certifies under 28 U.S.C. § 1915(a)(3) that any appeal from this order would not be taken in good faith, and therefore IFP status is denied for the purpose of an appeal. Cf. Coppedge v. United States, 369 U.S. 438, 444-45 (1962) (holding that an appellant demonstrates good faith when he seeks review of a nonfrivolous issue).

SO ORDERED.

I. BASIS FOR JURISDICTION

Federal courts are courts of limited jurisdiction (limited power). Generally, only two types of cases can be heard in federal court: cases involving a federal question and cases involving diversity of citizenship of the parties. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1331, a case arising under the United States Constitution or federal laws or treaties is a federal question case. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1332, a case in which a citizen of one State sues a citizen of another State or nation, and the amount in controversy is more than $75,000, is a diversity case. In a diversity case, no defendant may be a citizen of the same State as any plaintiff.

I have read the Pro Se (Nonprisoner) Consent to Receive Documents Electronically:

☐ Yes ☐ No

If you do consent to receive documents electronically, submit the completed form with your complaint. If you do not consent, please do not attach the form.

United States District Court
Southern District of New York

Pro Se (Nonprisoner) Consent to Receive Documents Electronically

Parties who are not represented by an attorney and are not currently incarcerated may choose to receive documents in their cases electronically (by e-mail) instead of by regular mail. Receiving documents by regular mail is still an option, but if you would rather receive them only electronically, you must do the following:

1. Sign up for a PACER login and password by contacting PACER¹ at www.pacer.uscourts.gov or 1-800-676-6856;
2. Complete and sign this form.

If you consent to receive documents electronically, you will receive a Notice of Electronic Filing by e-mail each time a document is filed in your case. After receiving the notice, you are permitted one “free look” at the document by clicking on the hyperlinked document number in the e-mail.² Once you click the hyperlink and access the document, you may not be able to access the document for free again. After 15 days, the hyperlink will no longer provide free access. Any time that the hyperlink is accessed after the first “free look” or the 15 days, you will be asked for a PACER login and may be charged to view the document. For this reason, you should print or save the document during the “free look” to avoid future charges.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

Under Rule 5 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Local Civil Rule 5.2, and the Court’s Electronic Case Filing Rules & Instructions, documents may be served by electronic means. If you register for electronic service:

1. You will no longer receive documents in the mail;
2. If you do not view and download your documents during your “free look” and within 15 days of when the court sends the e-mail notice, you will be charged for looking at the documents;
3. This service does not allow you to electronically file your documents;
4. It will be your duty to regularly review the docket sheet of the case.³

¹ Public Access to Court Electronic Records (PACER) (www.pacer.uscourts.gov) is an electronic public access service that allows users to obtain case and docket information from federal appellate, district, and bankruptcy courts, and the PACER Case Locator over the internet.

² You must review the Court’s actual order, decree, or judgment and not rely on the description in the email notice alone. See ECF Rule 4.3

³ The docket sheet is the official record of all filings in a case. You can view the docket sheet, including images of electronically filed documents, using PACER or you can use one of the public access computers available in the Clerk’s Office at the Court.

CONSENT TO ELECTRONIC SERVICE

I hereby consent to receive electronic service of notices and documents in my case(s) listed below. I affirm that:

1. I have regular access to my e-mail account and to the internet and will check regularly for Notices of Electronic Filing;
2. I have established a PACER account;
3. I understand that electronic service is service under Rule 5 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and Rule 5.2 of the Local Civil Rules, and that I will no longer receive paper copies of case filings, including motions, decisions, orders, and other documents;
4. I will promptly notify the Court if there is any change in my personal data, such as name, address, or e-mail address, or if I wish to cancel this consent to electronic service;
5. I understand that I must regularly review the docket sheet of my case so that I do not miss a filing; and
6. I understand that this consent applies only to the cases listed below and that if I file additional cases in which I would like to receive electronic service of notices of documents, I must file consent forms for those cases.
